

Wildflower Talk

Hear Bob Allen and Fred Roberts talk about the lives of wildflowers

June 29, 2014

4:00-5:30 PM

Chino Hills State Park's Discovery Center

Learn everything you want to know about the beautiful wildflowers all around us from the accomplished and entertaining authors of Wildflowers of Orange County and the Santa Ana Mountains.

$3.00

PAY AT THE DOOR

Free Parking

Fundraiser to support the
Chino Hills State Park Interpretive Association

Chino Hills State Park Discovery Center
4500 Carbon Canyon Road, Brea

RSVP Not Necessary

There will be copies of Wildflowers of Orange County and the Santa Ana Mountains available for purchase.

Robert L. "Bob" "BugBob" Allen is an entomologist, botanist, instructor, and photographer. He teaches nature photography, entomology, botany, and pollination classes in classroom and in the field. Bob is a Research Associate at the Rancho Santa Ana Botanic Garden and a Research Associate in Entomology at the Natural History Museum of Los Angeles County.

Fred M. Roberts, Jr., is a consulting botanist, artist, and author. From 1991 to 1999 he worked as a botanist for the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service before starting his own botanical consulting business. Fred is a Research Associate at the Rancho Santa Ana Botanic Garden.